

Are you the Junior Project Manager we are looking for?

Well, that depends on whether you want to work with an energetic, eager and young team in a fantastic office overlooking the port of Amsterdam. And if you are willing to be part of the best agency network in the world, creating campaigns which find their way into pop culture!

Of course we also need you to bring something to the party:

- 2 to 4 years of experience in a jr. project management role
- You are structured, organized and punctual
- You have affinity with complex digital productions
- Experience with audits and audit software (e.g. ZINC) is a plus
- You have experienced with various project management tools
- You have experience with content management systems
- You are a team player but perform your own tasks independent
- Fluent in spoken and written Dutch and English
- German and/or French is a plus
- You have strong communication skills

What to expect from us:

- Competitive salary and excellent benefits
- Working for successful and challenging brands
- An inspiring informal and international working environment
- Opportunity and guidance in further developing your talent
- Plenty of (international) growth opportunities
